ARTICLE XII PAY PERIOD

The existing payroll procedure shall be continued during the term of this agreement.

ARTICLE XIII WORK PERIOD AND SCHEDULE

Section 1

The schedule for Patrol Sergeants/Lieutenants shall be a three on, three off, 12 hour schedule (3/3 12), with no compensatory time earned, except that the Sergeant/Lieutenant shall select 10 regular days off by March 1st of that calendar year to be approved by the Chief of Police. These days are to be used Monday through Sunday during Shift I. The "3/3 12" schedule consists of a 12 continuous hours of work in a 24 hour period, for three consecutive workdays followed by three consecutive days off. This schedule rotates after each shift worked. The Chief of Police may modify the method and frequency of the rotation when necessary to schedule training and whenever a Sergeant's/Lieutenant's rotation is changed from time to time. Whenever possible, academy training will be scheduled during the Sergeant's/Lieutenant's regularly scheduled shift and any day off on which the Sergeant/Lieutenant attends academy training will be compensated "one to one" compensatory time.

The number of compensatory hours earned by a Sergeant/Lieutenant for academy training in a specific 12 day cycle must then in turn be given off within the 12 day cycle or the hours will be converted to overtime. Working more than 12 hours in a 24 hour time period will be considered overtime and compensated in accordance with Article X.

Section 2

The Chief of Police shall determine staffing levels (the number of Sergeants/Lieutenants for each of the two shifts) that are necessary for the "3/3 12" schedule. In addition, the Chief shall maintain right to alter staffing levels, and assignments, from time to time, as he deems appropriate and necessary to insure the efficient operation of the department. Staffing levels for Sergeants/Lieutenants must be maintained or the Chief has the managerial right to suspend the "3/3 12" schedule and replace it with the following "eight hour day" schedule if the appropriate stated staffing levels are not able to be maintained.

Section 3

The "eight hour day" schedule for all Sergeants assigned to the patrol section shall be 171 hours worked within a 28 day cycle. Any hours worked in excess of eight hours in any one day shall be compensated at the Sergeant's overtime rate in accordance with Article X, or at his/her discretion receive compensatory time at the rate of time and one half for all time worked. The "eight hour day" schedule is based on a maximum of five consecutive workdays followed by at least one day off. The Chief may modify the method and frequency of the rotation when necessary to schedule training.

The Chief shall determine the staffing levels for each shift necessary for the "eight hour day" schedule. In addition, the Chief shall maintain the right to alter staffing levels, and assignments, from time to time, as he deems appropriate and necessary to insure the efficient operation of the department.

Section 4

The parties recognize that, as the result of the normal scheduling, the Detective Sergeant voluntarily and with the Chief's permission may work 32 hours in one week and 48 hours the following week. Any such disparity in the number of hours worked in any one week, as a result of normal scheduling shall not result in the payment of overtime. Any such hours worked over the normal schedule shall be compensated as overtime in accordance with Article X.

Section 5

The Chief, at his discretion, may assign a Sergeant to a "40 hour work week"-five, eight hour shifts followed by two consecutive days off or four, 10 hour shifts. Accordingly, a Sergeant shall not be required to work more than eight hours or 10 hours in a day (a day is based on the eight or 10 hour schedule). The parties recognize that a Sergeant may require flexible scheduling as a result of their particular assignment. The parties agree that a Sergeant may at his/her option and with the consent of the Chief, adjust his/her shift schedule by returning to duty without having 16 hours off between shifts. A Sergeant may, at his/her discretion, and with the consent of the Chief, work in excess of eight or 10 consecutive hours and not receive overtime. The hours worked in excess of eight hours during a scheduled eight hour day must be taken off within the calendar year. However, if a Sergeant is required to work more than eight consecutive hours on any scheduled eight hour duty tour or 10 consecutive hours on any scheduled 10 hour duty tour, he/she shall be compensated with overtime in accordance with Article X. For purposes of this Agreement, a day shall be defined as a 24 hour period starting with the first hour of the duty tour worked.

The Chief, at his discretion, may assign a Lieutenant to a "40 hour work week"-five, eight hour shifts, followed by two consecutive days off. Accordingly, a Lieutenant shall not be required to work more than eight hours in a day (a day is based on the eight hour schedule). The parties recognize that a Lieutenant may require flexible scheduling as a result of their particular assignment. The parties agree that a Lieutenant may at his/her option and with the consent of the Chief, adjust his/her shift schedule by returning to duty without having 16 hours off between shifts. For purposes of this Agreement, a day shall be defined as a 24 hour period starting with the first hour of the duty tour worked.

Requests for time off are granted for Sergeants/Lieutenants, if when the request is made, the existing schedule at that time provides that minimum manning will be met inclusive of the time off sought. If the Local Office of Emergency Management has declared a formal emergency which would require additional manning, then requests for time off which were already scheduled at the time of the emergency, may if they affect manning, be denied. Time off which is submitted within six weeks of the date sought, may be denied for the minimum manning purposes and may also be denied if there is an ongoing emergency, which is declared by the Local Office of Emergency Management, which would require additional manning. Other time off may be changed if it is outside the six weeks of the date of the time scheduled.

Once time off is so fixed within the six-week schedule it cannot be taken away and Sergeants/Lieutenants who are recalled, who have such time off scheduled, shall compensated in accordance with Article X.

Section 6

Sergeants may swap duty time, hour for hour with one another with the permission of the Chief of Police or his designee.

Lieutenants may swap duty time, hour for hour with another Lieutenant with the permission of the Chief of Police or his designee.

Section 7

The Township in accordance with the following schedule shall compensate Sergeants/Lieutenants not otherwise performing police duties who are required to attend a criminal court proceeding:

When such attendance or appearance occurs during a Sergeant's/Lieutenant's assigned duty hours, there shall be no loss of, or additional compensation.

When such attendance or appearance occurs outside a Sergeant's duty hours, he/she shall be compensated for a minimum of three hours at the regular overtime rate. The Chief of Police or his designee shall determine dismissal time or further assignment.

When such court appearance time is in excess of the Sergeant's eight hour, 10 hour or 12 hour scheduled tour, he/she shall receive compensation in accordance with Article X of this Agreement.

When such court appearance time is in excess of the Lieutenant's eight hour or 12 hour scheduled tour, he/she shall receive compensation in accordance with Article X of this Agreement.

Section 2 Jury Duty

Sergeants/Lieutenants shall be relieved from duty with pay for court mandated jury duty. Upon completion of jury duty, the Sergeant/Lieutenant shall provide the Chief with a statement of the duration of the jury duty signed by the court clerk.

6 to 10 years	144
11 to 15 years	184
16 to 20 years	224
21 years and above	264

Continuous Service is defined as years of employment completed with the Long Hill Township Police Department. Sergeants/Lieutenants shall receive pay for vacation on the basis of regular salary for the period involved. All vacation hours shall be selected by February 1st of each calendar year to reserve seniority priority. Seniority for Sergeants promoted prior to January 1, 2014 to that rank is defined as the date of hire as a police officer among Sergeants. Seniority for Sergeants promoted on and after January 1, 2014 is defined as the date of promotion to Sergeant among Sergeants. Vacations for Sergeants shall be granted based on seniority in the section of the department the Sergeant is assigned to. For example, the Sergeant with the most seniority in the particular Patrol Section rotation he/she is assigned would be granted vacation. Sergeants who are serving in other sections of the department shall not be affected by Patrol Section vacation. Seniority for Lieutenants promoted prior to January 1, 2014 to that rank is defined as the date of hire as a police officer among Lieutenants. Seniority for Lieutenants promoted on and after January 1, 2014 is defined as the date of promotion to Lieutenants among Lieutenants. Vacations for Lieutenants shall be granted based on approval from the Chief of Police. Any vacation hours selected after February 1st by a sergeant can only be used when coverage is available and approved by a Division Commander. If the Chief of Police unreasonably denies the vacation hours, the Sergeant/Lieutenant shall have until March 1st, of the following year to use his remaining hours.

If the vacation hours are not used by March 1st, of the following year, then they shall lapse. Vacation time shall not be unreasonably denied.

Any vacation hours selected after February 1st by a Lieutenant can only be used when approved by the chief of police. If the Chief of Police unreasonably denies the vacation hours, the Lieutenant shall have until March 1st, of the following year to use his remaining hours. If the vacation hours are not used by March 1st, of the following year, then they shall lapse. Vacation time shall not be unreasonably denied.

When a Sergeant takes a five day (at eight hours per day) block, or four day (at 10 hours per day) block or three day (at 12 hours per day) block, of vacation leave, "vacation" shall be understood to mean "from the start of the days off including the days for duty taken off and the following days off".

When a Lieutenant takes a five day (at eight hours per day) block or three day (at 12 hours per day) block, of vacation leave, "vacation" shall be understood to mean "from the start of the days off including the days for duty taken off and the following days off". Vacation time for all Sergeants/Lieutenants must be utilized in full eight (8) or twelve (12) hour increments; whichever is appropriate. Vacation time for all Sergeants/Lieutenants must be utilized in full eight, 10 or 12 hour increments; whichever is appropriate.

The vacation days of any Sergeant/Lieutenant who leaves with less than five years of continuous service or has not reached the top of the salary guide, whichever is later shall be prorated.

There may be a maximum of one Patrol Section Sergeant off duty for vacation on each respective side of the Patrol Section rotation at any given time. The Chief of Police may grant additional Sergeants vacation time off if approved.

Vacation hours may not be used on holidays unless the Sergeant obtains coverage for the day (s).
